

What is Oktopus?

Oktopus is an interactive presentation and collaboration software. It works over ANY content or application. This software allows you to annotate and work over or alongside any software application, your existing content, or over a web browser.

Key Features:

Multi-Purpose

Diverse uses include teaching in education, presentations and training for business.

- Annotate over any application or web browser.
- Share and collaborate over documents.
- Present to any audience, in learning and corporate environments.
- Poll entire audiences and collect valuable feedback instantly.

Easy to Use

- Accessible to users of all ages.
- Over 70 interactive tools to create powerful and unique presentations.
- Quick tool palette allows for rapid presentation building,
- Available in over 40 languages.

Multi-touch

Multi-pen and multi-touch capabilities means users can simultaneously use and manipulate tools

Use Existing Lessons

- Open, edit and play SMART Notebook and IWB lessons exported from ActivInspire.
- Use Oktopus tools over the top of digital content including PDFs, websites, images, etc.

Platform for Collaboration

View live lessons, respond, share, take notes, and save presentations for review, using tablet or laptop.

Gamification

- Over 160 educational games, designed for touchscreen.
- Create up to four individual game zones, where students can practice skills in small groups or independently.

Contact us for more information and pricing:

888.859.1274 ♦ sales@galaxynext.us

www.galaxynext.us